Make Library Services a part of your team

Nova Scotia Health Authority Library Services provides staff and physicians with education and supports to effectively discover and use health information.

Our services
- 100+ databases
- Print & digital formats
- 24/7 access
- Book ordering
- Citation & copyright
- Full-text article access
- Subject guides

Stay in the know
Subscribe to our blog and receive short, timely updates and advice to help you find and use knowledge resources, authoritative information, and patient education tools.

Access from anywhere
Nova Scotia Health Authority staff and physicians can access our online resources 24/7 from work, home, or on the go.

Get in touch
Library staff are available at locations across the province to help you with your information needs.

Not sure who to contact? Email our general inbox and we'll make sure your request gets to the right person.

asklibrary@nshealth.ca
https://library.nshealth.ca